CITY CENTRE UPDATE

- Residents who have received the City Centre FOCUS in the past will be aware that City Centre Councillor Fraser Macpherson has been raising residents' concerns about seagulls and torn black bags. We are pleased to advise that the City Council's Environmental Health & Trading Standards Department has given Fraser an assurance that they will be very proactive in tackling this issue before the nesting season next year.
- Fraser is also taking part in a council-led group to look at parking issues in Central Dundee. Claire says, "The problems facing residents trying to park affect City Centre residents and also other areas locally, so it is good to see the issue being tackled."

WORN WHITE LINES CONCERN

Claire Matthew has responded to concerns raised about the very worn white junction lines at the Brown Constable Street junction with Lyon Street. The FOCUS Team has written to Dundee City Council's Planning & Transportation Department, asking for them to be repainted. As the photo (left) shows these are really worn badly. Additionally, the white lines in West Victoria Dock Road at City Quay are similarly worn (see right) and FOCUS has also reported this.
